Antioch Village Board Okays Industrial Council

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees Tuesday night approved the formation of an Industrial Development Council to try to bring industrial growth to the village.

The board gave unanimous approval to the proposition put forth by Henry (Pete) Pickard.

Pickard said the council, which is to be composed of seven members, would work independent of any group.

It would be composed of three members of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce, three from the Village Board and a seventh member.

Named were Pickard, Cliff Vanderwerker, Grant Spong, William Brook, Arthur R. Melendy, J. Irving Walsh and Richard O. Burnette.

The three trustees already form the village's industrial development committee and Spong, Vanderwerker and Pickard are on the Chamber's industrial committee.

Pickard told the trustees that the first task would be to fill out an industrial fact sheet to be filled with the state so that industry looking for a home would have a rundown on Antioch to consider.

"At least in this way we would be under consideration," Pickard said, "just by having our resume on file."

Pickard said that 100 new factory workers in the area would bring in $710,000 in new income to the community, some $229,000 in to the banks and an additional $331,000 in retail sales.

He said that a good amount of information would have to be gathered in order for the village to find out its strengths and weaknesses.

He said that it has been shown that the bulk of industrial growth for any area comes from industry already within the area.

"But an overall development survey would point out the deficiencies and then we would be able to correct them," he said.

Pickard also pointed out that a careful survey would have to be taken to determine what industry would be good for Antioch.

There are some industrial growths that leave much to be desired as far as the village is concerned, Pickard pointed out.

Mayor Raymond Toft opined that the idea was a good one.

"It will take a lot of work and study," Toft said, "but it will be a good thing for the community."

ZONING MATTERS

In other action the board approved one zoning matter and delayed action on another.

The approval was given to a petition of the Antioch Commercial Co. for a special use permit in a manufacturing district to convert a single-family home on Dwight Court and North Avenue to a two-family residence.

The approval was granted on the recommendation of the Antioch Zoning Board of Appeals which recommended approval a vote of 4 to 0.

The action delayed was on a petition by Eileen Lewin to rezone property at Orchard Street and David Avenue from R-2 single family to R-4 two-family for construction of a new building.

Realtor Bernard Osmond represented the petitioner.

The Zoning Board of Appeals recommended the petition be denied because of "spot zoning" and that it would not be in the best interest of the community.

Osmond, who said he would not fight the case in court, did say, however, that spot zoning was a tool used by zoning boards when everything else in the petition conformed to the ordinance.

"How can I fight spot zoning," he said, "when there is really no definition for it?"

Osmond lamented that if the village was never going to vary the zoning ordinance it didn't need a zoning board.

"If a zoning ordinance is any good at all," he said, "it must change. It must blend as the community blends."

"The petitioner in this case did everything necessary to conform to the ordinance for R-4 zoning and there were no objections."

Osmond told the board of trustees that there should be an appeal board set up so that an appeal could be perfected.

Osmond said he thought the board ought to review the zoning ordinance. Board Attorney Edward Jacobs agreed that the zoning board of appeals was a recommending body but the setup offered no provision for appeal.

He said that, nine times out of ten the board had to follow the recommendation of the zoning board.

He told the trustees that they had three courses of action. The board could either refer it back to the zoning board for reconsideration, it could go along with the zoning board's recommendation or it could override the recommendation.

The board instead chose to defer action on the matter until the first meeting in October. The board also voted to pay the members of the Antioch Zoning Board of Appeals $10 per hearing.

NEW FIREMAN

It also approved the appointment of Roger Hollis, of 1045 Osmond Avenue to the Antioch Fire Department. It was also announced that the Antioch Fire Department would hold an open house on October 6.

Antioch's Firefighters won a second place trophy at the Lake Co. Firemen's Assn. annual Round Robin water fight. Father Henderson To Mark 40th Year

The Reverend Alfred J. Henderson, pastor of St. Peter's Church of Antioch, will celebrate his 40th Anniversary as a Roman Catholic Priest on Sept. 22nd.

On that day he will celebrate a High Mass of Thanksgiving at 4:00 P.M. in the afternoon, in St. Peter's Church. All the Parishioners and friends are invited to attend.

Fr. Henderson was appointed as pastor to St. Peter's by His Eminence Cardinal Stritch, about 17 years ago. Before that he had been a professor at Quigley for twenty years. He was ordained to the priesthood by Cardinal Mundelein on Sept. 22nd, 1928 and celebrated his first Solemn Mass at the Church of Epiphany in Chicago, on September 23rd.

During the past seventeen years as a pastor of St. Peter's, Father Henderson's time was a very busy one as well as a rewarding. There were improvements to be made, as needed new additions to the school. On May 5th, 1956 the first spadefuls of earth were turned by Father Henderson, Sister Mary Joseph, then principal of the school, and the two trustees of the Parish, Mr. Edmund Vos and Mr. Bernard F. Naber, through whose great generosity the parish was able to build the

Rev. Alfred J. Henderson

Convent and the addition to the school.

In October, 1956, the cornerstone was laid and the dream of many materialized, and with this dedication on April 28th, 1957, the parish plant of St. Peter's has been successfully completed, through Father Henderson's good leadership.

Through the priestly work of Father Henderson the Church continued to grow in Antioch and with it the need for additional classrooms. In the summer of 1960 Father Henderson and the

Golf Outing A Success

The Antioch Rescue Squad doesn't know how much it will receive from the recent golf outing held Sept. 11 at the George Diamond Country Club, Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Road.

All of the bills haven't come in yet, according to treasurer Robert Wilton.

The affair was a huge success, however, with some 203 persons playing golf and 477 partaking of dinner.

The affair was sponsored by John Teresi Chevrolet-Olds, and Big John made good his promise and donated a 1968 Chevrolet to the affair.

Driving home the grand prize were Mr. and Mrs. Owen F. Reebie, 166 Augusta, Grayslake.

Some 150 prizes were donated by the Antioch merchants and most of the participants went away with one or more of them.

The best golfer award went to Mario Bonafoglio of Kenosha, Wis., who turned in a very fine 72. He was given a trophy donated by John Teresi.

Among those attending the affair were Mayor Raymond Toft and Father Alfred Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Teresi, parents of Big John, came from Florida for the event.

AGS Budget Approved

The Antioch Grade School Board met early Tuesday evening with two architects, Raymond Orbut and Douglas Orbut. The group inspected the new property that was purchased to get an idea of where to place the prospective new building.

The board then approved the following tax levy: Transportation $33,600; $450,000 Education; $112,000 Building; $5,400 Special Education; $12,000 Municipal Retirement; $21,000 Working Cash Fund; $100,005 Fire Prevention & Safety Corrections on buildings; $2,484 Liability.

Helen Burke Named To Nixon Drive

Helen Burke, of Antioch, and Mildred Mahoney, of Lake Villa, have been named chairmen of their respective townships on behalf of the drive for the Republican ticket of Nixon-Agnew in Lake County.

The appointments, along with other township appointments, were made by Mrs. Richard Reed, of Deerfield, Lake County Chairwoman for Women for Nixon-Agnew.

The program is two-fold, Mrs. Reed said. One is to get out the women's vote and the other is to raise funds to be used to purchase television and radio spots focused specifically on the woman voter.

Rights Abused

We seem to have more than our share of protesters these days.

The real die-hard protester will march at the drop of a hat.

He will also scream at the top of his lungs that his rights have been violated—rights given him under the Constitution of the United States.

These rights have been so abused these days—by the protester himself—that it isn't funny.

They seem to forget that those who are not protesting have rights also.

They say they have the right to peacefully assemble. We agree.

But the peaceful assembly usually is agitated by a few of the leaders so that the right of being peaceful let alone is gone for those who don't assemble.

And when the fight starts the leaders aren't around. Just the naive are left to bear the brunt for the actions of the agitators.

One thing the protester forgets, we think. The Constitution gives him the right—but with it goes responsibility.

Mainly the responsibility of seeing that while preserving his rights, he does not infringe on the rights of others.

Register - - Vote

In two short months the American public is going to make a great decision.

The public is going to select the man that will lead us for the next four years.

And then the day after election there is going to be a lot of griping—and that's good—that's healthy.

But there is also going to be a group of silent ones.

They will be the ones who forgot to register to exercise the greatest right that an American citizen has. The right to vote.

County Clerk Truman Gerretsen has announced special hours so that everyone that wants to can register.

He has also named deputy clerks to register voters in their own townships.

Don't be one of the silent ones after election day.

Register.

Then vote on November 5.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClure

The 56th Annual Conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, being held in Lima, Peru this week reflects the critical nature of several subjects of great international concern.

This Member of Congress, together with 9 other Members of the United States House and Senate, is privileged to participate in the meaningful discussions with Parliamentarians from more than 50 other nations of the world.

The site of this year's Conference in Lima, Peru affords an opportunity to witness firsthand the evidence of population explosion which has reached its most frightening proportions and some other Latin American countries. In considering programs for economic development and mutual aid, it is already clear that Latin American population growth has outdistanced the educational and economic benefits which other nations and international organizations have endeavored to promote on the great South American continent.

The President of Peru who greeted the more than 300 delegates to the Inter-Parliamentary Union Conference contended recently that United States failures to help solve the problems of South America result from lack of knowledge of South America itself. One of the principal benefits which will be derived from the meetings in Lima is the increased knowledge and understanding of Latin America which our United States Congressional delegates, as well as those from other friendly nations, will gain.

The subject which may well dominate the conference agenda is the recent invasion of Czechoslovakia by the Soviet Union and several of its Warsaw Pact allies. It will be a novel experience to find IPU delegates from Rumania, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and other pro-communist nations teamed up with the United States in expressing abhorrence of the Soviet's military actions against the Dubcek regime.

A significant factor which underlies the deliberations at the Inter-Parliamentary Union Conference is the civil unrest in our own country. The riots and disorders that have occurred in recent months, including police-state measures at the recent Democratic Convention in Chicago, are well-known to the Parliamentarians representing other nations. Our inability to maintain order in our own society reduces our influence with representatives of other nations who formerly regarded our advice and counsel with greater credulity and respect.

As Rapporteur of the Educational, Scientific and Cultural Committee of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, this Member of Congress will discuss the effect of science and technology in promoting national economic and social growth. This subject presents excellent opportunities for advancing mutual understanding and harmonious international relationships. The report should help demonstrate that there are indeed national objectives other than political domination and war.

In concluding this Member's Report to the assembled delegates, the entire subject, as well as the object of our human hopes, is summarized in these words: "Let me express the hope, on behalf of all of my colleagues who have been privileged to participate in the discussions... that the appropriate and planned utilization of scientific and technological knowledge and know-how for the benefit of mankind can transform our world of disparity, doubt, indifference and even discord into one of hope, progress, purpose and harmony."

Post Vacation Car Care Is Important

Post vacation care is every bit as important as car care before an extended trip, according to the Chicago Motor Club's emergency Road Service Department.

The under side of an automobile driven long mileage on typical vacation trips takes a beating—thrown up by tires, prolonged heat and dust, ruts and bumps.

Also after a long trip it's normally necessary to get your car attuned again to the more sluggish pace of city driving.

Here are some check points suggested by the motor club:

-Tires: If you have covered long distances on your vacation, tires may have become worn or sidewalls weakened. Check for wear and balance.

-Wheels: Rough road driving is a hardship on wheel alignment. Have alignment (caster-camber and toe-in) checked. Proper alignment will greatly reduce tire wear.

-Air Cleaner: Clean it.

-Oil: After a long, dusty, hot trip, change it.

-Differential: Have your mechanic check the grease. On sustained highway driving it has a tendency to foam, building up pressure which may force it out around the gasket. Make the same check on power steering and brakes.

-Shock absorbers: The rough road driving again, or an overload, can cause excessive wear on shock absorbers. If your car sways too much on curves or bounces up and down in a rolling motion, have your shocks checked. Weak shocks make good control of your car difficult.

-Steering: Make sure there is a minimum of play in the steering wheel. Check steering connections for proper lubrication and signs of wear.

-Surface: Wash it thoroughly, especially if your trip has taken you to beach areas. Salt and sand can damage the finish.

Muffler checks, tailpipe examinations and bracket inspections are not time-consuming, but without proper attention faulty parts can be a hazard and an expense to the motorist. A leak in the system may allow fatal carbon monoxide fumes to enter the passenger section of your car.

Make these checks with your mechanic now, before he is burdened with late September and October winterizing business.

U. S. Representative Wilbur D. Mills from Arkansas says, "We must not let ourselves be put in the position of raising and lowering the headline of taxation from season to season, merely to make the merchandise more salable. Ours must be a becoming utilitarian style which will wear well and serve its purpose in as attractive a design as we are able to create."

Antioch Firemen Win 2nd Place

Antioch's Firemen won a second place trophy at the Lake County Firemen's Association annual Round Robin water fights on Sunday, Sept. 15.

The first place trophy was presented to Round Lake. This time Round Lake will be able to keep the travelling trophy which has been in existence for seven years. In order to keep the trophy, a team had to win first place three times (not necessarily in succession). This was Round Lake's third win.

Fifteen fire departments took part in the affair and host for the event was Finn Industries of Mundelein.

Teach Him Gently... If You Can

The Salem Methodist Church Messenger had the following in their September News Bulletin:
My young son starts to school tomorrow... It's all going to be strange and new to him for a while, and I wish you would sort of treat him gently...

You see, up to now, he's been our little boy.
He's been boss of the back yard. His mother has always been around to repair his wounds and I've always been handy to soothe his feelings.

But now, things are going to be different...

This morning he's going to walk down the front steps, wave his hand, and start out on the great adventure... It's an adventure that will probably include wars and tragedy and sorrow. To live his life in the world he will live in requires faith and love and courage.

So, world, I wish you would sort of take him by his young hand and teach him the things he will have to know.

Teach him, but gently... If you can.

He will have to learn, I know, that all men are not just, that all men are not true.

But teach him also that for every scoundrel this is a hero, that for every selfish politician, there is a dedicated leader... Teach him that for every enemy there is a friend.

It will take time, world, I know, but teach him, if you can, that a nickel earned is of far more value than a dollar found... Teach him to learn to lose... and to enjoy

Steer him away from envy, if you can, and teach him the secret of quiet laughter.

In school, world, teach him it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat... Teach him to have faith in his own ideas even if in everyone tells him they are wrong. Teach him to be gentle.

Teach him, if you can, how to laugh when he is sad... Teach him there is no shame in tears...

Teach him there can be glory in failure and despair in success.

Teach him to sell his brawn
and brains to the highest bidder but never to put a price tag on his heart and soul.

Treat him gently, world, but don't coddle him, because only the test of fire makes fine steel.

Let him have the courage to be impatient and let him have the patience to be brave... Teach him always to have sublime faith in himself, because then he will always have sublime faith in mankind.

This is a big order, world, but see what you can do... He's such a fine little fellow, my son.

An electric dryer costs up to $40 less than a gas dryer. That's the first load off your mind.

Go ahead. Spend a few dollars less, and get the best clothes dryer going. It's the Electric Dryer.

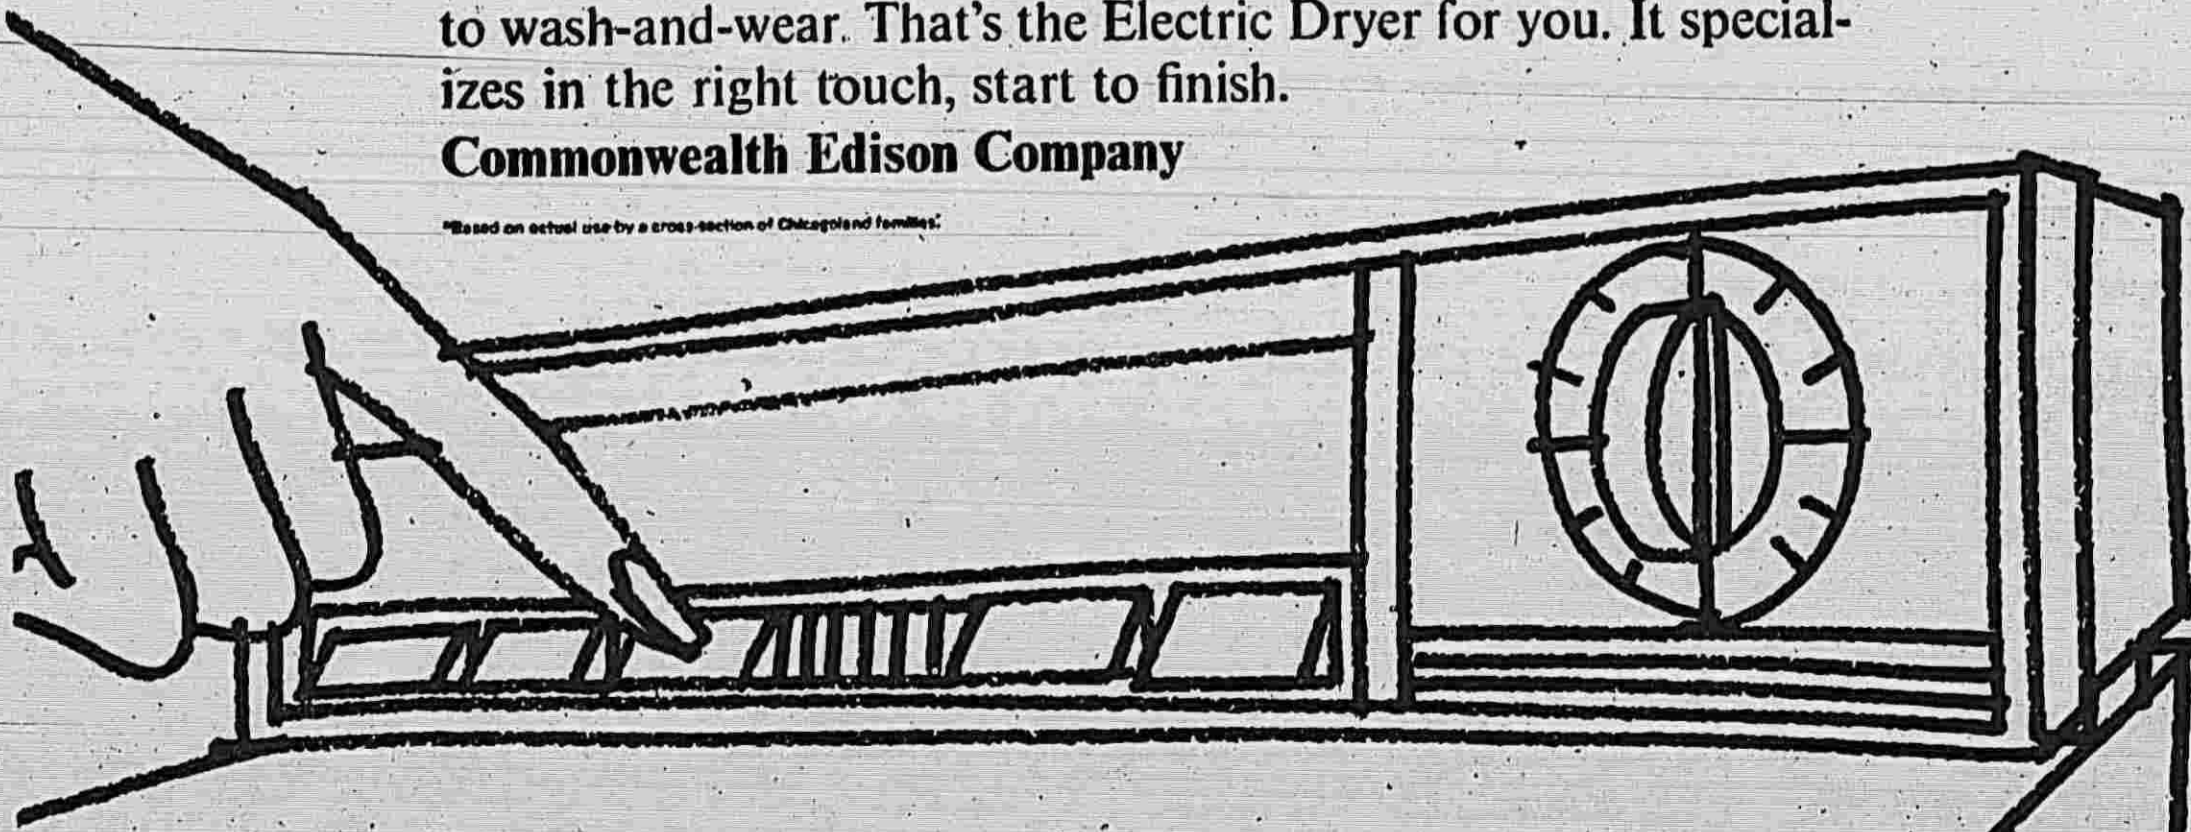

Spend a lot of dollars less (as much as even $40 less), and still get the best clothes dryer going. It's still the Electric Dryer.

And when you get it home, you can run it for less than 30¢ a week. (So, actually, with that $40 you can save by buying an Electric Dryer, you can figure you're doing your laundry free for about three years!)

Meanwhile, you're also getting all the other advantages of electric drying: precise control, little or no maintenance, and gentle, radiant heat—like sunshine.

It's the all-in-one dryer that starts out being easy on your wallet and ends up being easy on your laundry—delicate fabrics to wash-and-wear. That's the Electric Dryer for you. It specializes in the right touch, start to finish.

Ceramics Class Organized

A new class in ceramics is being organized at The Music Center of Lake County, David Goodman, Director, said while reporting that 300 enrollments were registered at the non-profit fine arts school earlier this month.

In the ceramics class, students will learn to shape and prepare clay, to apply glazes, and to use the "potter's wheel" to create their own art objects. Teaching the class will be Mrs. Elizabeth Nehls, an art teacher in the Waukegan public school system. She has received her degree in art from Carthage College in Kenosha, Wisconsin, where she majored in ceramics.

Goodman said that while enrollment is running slightly ahead of last year, there is room in classes and for individual study in almost all subjects.

He said there are openings in an oils class for adults Wednesday mornings, and in art media classes for high school and elementary grade students.

There are a few openings in most of the orchestral instruments, as well as in voice, dance (adults and children, including an exercise in dance class for women), orchestra, choir, and folk or classical guitar.

Goodman urged parents who want their children to eventually develop some appreciation of music to enroll their youngsters in the special Carl Orff classes for children 4 through 8 years of age.

Tuition is based on the ability to pay. The school is located in Lilac Cottage, Bowen Park, 1917 N. Sheridan Road, Waukegan, Illinois. Enrollment will be possible from 11 A.M. to 4 P.M. Tuesday through Saturday with classes scheduled to begin the week of September 24.

Frosh Girls Outnumber Frosh Boys

Don't cry too hard, freshman girls—it is true that you outnumbered the boys this year at Antioch High School—but there is an oversupply of boys in the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes.

Freshman girls number 170 to 141 boys, for a total of 311 frosh enrolled at the school.

The Soph girls are well off—only 144 of them to 166 sophomore boys!

Juniors—well the fellows total 144 and the girls 122. In the Senior class there are 127 boys and 109 girls.

If it is any consolation, the freshman girls outnumber all other groups at the school, with the soph boys playing a close second. Antioch has one more freshman than it has sophomores—311-310.

The school actually has 23 more boys than girls enrolled—578 boys and 545 girls for a whopping total of 1123 (not counting the Special Ed. group).

Tues. Was "Ouch Day" At ACHS

If you walked down the halls of Antioch High School Tuesday you would have seen many freshmen and sophomores coming out of the cafeteria, some with pained expressions on their faces, holding their arms.

It was "ouch" day at the high school as over 800 freshmen, sophomores and newcomers to the area bravely received their TB test shots. We saw 6' plus Al Boston, the sophomore football tackle get his shot—and will have to say he was mighty brave about it.

The test shots are given to the students through the cooperation of the Lake County TB Association. They are considered to be 100 per cent accurate in detecting TB or showing whether a person has come in contact with the disease.

On Friday, the nurses will return to examine the results.

Panel to Discuss Alcoholism on WKRS

Several leading industrial firms will be called to give their contribution to the show.

On Monday, Sept. 16, the second panel discussion was featured and the subject was "Confrontation With the Reality of Alcoholism." Participants were: Dr. Carl Meyer of Abbott Laboratories, William Rosing, Attorney, Richard Mitchell, Ex. Director of Family Services and Claire Burque, Director of Nursing, Lake Co. Health Dept.

Committee Formed

Secretary of State Paul Powell announced the formation of a Motor Vehicle Dealer Advisory Committee to study and evaluate present laws relating to dealers and to make recommendations for any changes in the law.

At its organization meeting, the members named John A. Kilborn of Kilborn Motors, Inc., of Decatur, the chairman; William F. Davis of Davis Pontiac, Inc., of Elmhurst, the vice chairman, and Gilbert Blades, supervisor of the Title Division in Mr. Powell's office, the secretary.

The Committee also selected for priority attention the preparation of proposed legislation calling for periodic motor vehicle inspection and a review of the existing laws on dealers and manufacturer licensing.

"It is my desire that this committee examine fully the statutes presently in force and, in concert with the Secretary of State's office, the Motor Vehicle Laws Commission and the appropriate committees of the Illinois House of Representatives and the Illinois Senate, suggest any changes which might be necessary to update the present laws," Secretary Powell told the group.

"I feel it is important to this vital sector of our economy and to the taxpayers and those people who in their everyday lives do business with motor vehicle dealers to have the best possible licensing and regulation laws of motor vehicle dealers," he said.

Citing an area where his office has improved service to both motor vehicle owners and dealers, Mr. Powell said the new machines for printing certificates of title have reduced from one hour to four seconds the amount of time required to produce a title.

Suggest Furnace Check-Up

If your home is one of the more than 30 million in the U. S. that has a gas heating system, a minimum of routine maintenance measures will get it ready for cold weather.

According to Northern Illinois Gas Company, the following steps should be taken:

The filters should be changed regularly on forced warm air heating systems. NIGAS recommends that this be done at least twice during the heating season.

The furnace fan or hot water circulating pump should be lubricated. This should be done at least three times annually.

Check your chimney. If it's blocked in any way, there won't be proper venting. Hold a hand mirror inside the chimney at the clean-out opening or at the lowest vent pipe connection. You should get reflected light if your chimney is clear of obstructions.

Check chimney connections. Make sure vent pipes fit snugly into the chimney.

Check the thermostat. Turn it up and wait until warm air begins to flow. Then turn it down and listen for the blower to shut itself off. If the unit passes this quick test, you can be sure that the pilot is on and that the thermostat and blower are in proper working order.

If during the course of your maintenance and testing you encounter a condition that seems to be abnormal, do not attempt to correct it yourself. While a gas heating system is not overly complex, specialized knowledge is required to repair it. NIGAS suggests calling in a local, established heating contractor. The utility adds that its service department should be contacted if circumstances dictate and a contractor is not readily available.

Sequoits Sweep Salem Series

Wins 13-6

Although hampered by first game jitters, early interceptions and penalties, the Antioch Sequoits managed to keep their record against Salem Central's Falcons perfect by defeating them 13-6 Friday night.

Salem had hoped to win this in order to keep Antioch from ending the series with all wins. However, it just wasn't in the stars for the Sequoits to succumb to Salem.

After intercepting Steve Owens' first pass after the kickoff, it looked like Salem might score. However, a touchdown run from the 25 yard line was wiped out when Salem was called for being off-side. From that point on, Salem was never a real threat to the Antioch squad.

Midway through the second period, Antioch started to make its move, only to have it delayed because of two successive 15 yarders. However, Dave Camp scampered off-tackle for 37 yards and a first down to keep Antioch's threat alive. Owens' went 13 yards on "quarterback keep" and Dennis Pleviak smacked through the middle. Camp plunged five yards for the score. Don Effinger's kick made it 7-0, Antioch, with 1:08 left in the first half.

Antioch kicked to Salem to start the second half. After forcing Salem to punt, Owens handed the ball to Camp, who went off-tackle for 76 yards and another touchdown. Two key blocks by senior guard Don Gaa gave Camp all the room he needed to dance into the end zone. Effinger's kick was wide, making it 13-0 Antioch.

Not until the fourth quarter did Salem get any kind of momentum going. After intercepting an Owens pass on the 5 yard line, the Falcons marched 83 yards for a score. The extra point was no good, making the score 13-6 Antioch.

Salem Kicked off and Antioch controlled the ball for the remainder of the game.

With eleven seconds left in the game and Antioch on Salem's 15 yard line, quarterback Steve Owens was dropped for a 25 yard loss.

Head Coach Roy Nelson gave the explanation, "We told Steve to fake a pass and run around to kill the remaining 11 seconds."

Salem's last effort came after Owens' scamper had run out 10 of the remaining 11 seconds. The Salem quarterback went back to pass and was smothered by a host of Sequoits, thus ending the game.

Antioch's junior-halfback, Kevin O'Neill, will be out for the season with a broken arm acquired Friday evening.

Dave Camp led all carriers with a 7.6 average for 28 carries and a total of 215 yards.

Ralph Zanck was up there also with an average of 9.5 yards a carry.

Antioch looked good in their first play of the season, and is anxious to dig into conference play. They play at Lake Zurich this Saturday.

McHenry Club Crowns Champ

By Harry Stern
The McHenry Sportsmen's Club crowned the 1968 Trap Shooting Champion Sunday, Sept. 15, at their annual picnic held on the club's rambling grounds, on the west side of Pistakee Bay.

Alvis Parsons, Mundelein, won the coveted trophy over a field of 59 determined shooters in a close-fought contest. Parsons registered his win with a 24 from the sixteen yard line and a 23 from his handicap position at the 24 yard line.

Tied for second place were Roy Jarrett, Grayslake, and Delbert Huhn, Ingleside, each with a 46. Jarrett won the shoot-off.

Lewis Piltzen, McHenry, won the Senior crown; Billy Huhn, Ingleside took the Junior trophy, and Betty Van Den Berge, Mundelein, captured the Ladies' laurels.

Mrs. Chuck (Sharon) Smeasert, Lake Villa, and John Baltrum, Chicago, each won a ham donated by JoPat of Antioch.

A total of 217 persons attended the wing-ding, all members and their families.

Cossman Wins 30 Lap Feature At Waukegan

Reimer Wins Sunday

One of the wildest nights of auto racing this year went into the books Saturday night as the late model stock cars and hobby stocks tore up the Waukegan Speedway. Jim Cossman won the 30 lap feature as Dennis Burgan blew a tire and crashed into the wall 3/4 laps short of victory.

Open competition late model racing will prevail the next two Saturday nights as last Saturday's races ended the championship points.

Jim Cossman also won the title by a sizeable margin over Al Hagerty with Harold Gutech third and Mike Wolff fourth.

Two spectacular hobby stock flips kept the fans on the edge of their seats all night. George Garrett flipped several times in the second heat dumping gasoline over the track. Later the hobby leader, Jerry Powers, sailed into the first turn and flipped violently to the wall.

Powers escaped with a minor cut on his forehead.

Al Hagerty, after a clean sweep last Saturday, failed to carry a checkered flag Saturday evening. He did have a good night, though, setting the fastest qualifying time, finishing third in the trophy dash, second in the fast heat and fourth in the feature.

Bob Klemm survived the wildest hobby feature to win easily after some rough going in the early laps. After Powers performed his high-speed flip in the second lap, the race had to be stopped again for a serious appearing accident when June Hurner bounced off the homestretch and was struck broadside by Chuck Chadwick. Turner was treated at the track for a knee bruise.

Open competition rules will prevail for the next two weeks in the late model division with the car age limit and the tire size requirements lifted. The engines will be limited to one four-barrel carburetor; however, any type of fuel will be permitted. For further details, owners and drivers can contact the Speedway at 623-9540.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 15
John Reimer survived an early accident and handily won his fourth consecutive modified feature at the Waukegan Speedway, Sunday night. Reimer also won the point championship as the next two Sunday night programs will be run under open competition rules.

Five separate accidents marred the field considerably before the feature ever got under way. The most serious accident came when Harold "Mouse" Wade dropped a driveshaft in the hot laps before the feature. The shaft snapped into the fuel tank punching a big hole in the bottom and spraying the first and second turns with alcohol. Wade exited his car before it stopped rolling and the alcohol never did ignite.

J. W. Jamerson led the semi-feature race for nine laps before Ron Larson shot into the lead with Bill Klein in hot pursuit. Klein shadowed Larson for four laps before taking the lead and going on to win with just two laps left.

A questionnaire has been sent to all 1967 graduates of Wilmot Union High School as a part of the guidance activities of the current year at the school.

The questionnaire is being sent to determine if the school is meeting the needs of the students. The results will become a statistical report which will be used by the faculty and administration to aid in curriculum study and revision.

Mrs. Roger Gilbert, the guidance director at Wilmot will answer any questions regarding this questionnaire. A similar questionnaire will be sent to 1968 graduates, within the next few months.

Mental Health Campaign Is Nearing Goal

The Mental Health Association's 1968 campaign, headed by Norman A. Steplon, president of National Tea Company, is within 4 per cent of its goal of $250,000. The mental health campaign was launched the first week of May, which is National Mental Health Week. It continues through the end of September to allow time to raise the balance of $9,250.

Steplon, as general campaign chairman, has recruited 150 business associates who have been working diligently on the campaign. In addition, 15,000 Bell Ringer volunteers assisted in raising $140,000 by calling on their neighbors and friends.

Steplon called attention to the alarming fact that one person in every ten has some form of mental or emotional illness that requires psychiatric treatment. He added that there are more people in hospitals with mental illness than with all other diseases combined including cancer and heart disease.

The Mental Health Association of Greater Chicago is a citizens action group concentrating its efforts on providing better care and treatment for the mentally ill in Cook and Lake counties. It spearheads a five point program in the areas of service, planning, education, action and research.
